

CORDIANT ANNOUNCES FURTHER PROGRESS WITH DIGITAL FRANCHISE

8 June 2021: Cordiant is pleased to announce that, following on from the IPO, it has raised another ~USD 260 million for its core digital infrastructure equity strategy.

This brings total capital raised in Cordiant Digital Infrastructure Limited (CORD:LSE) thus far in 2021 to ~USD 840 million.

Cordiant Digital Infrastructure Limited is focused on investing in core digital assets in Europe, The U.K. and North America. Announced investments to date include CRA (a diversified platform of towers, fibre and data centres in the Czech Republic, which has a GDP per capita higher than Spain or Italy) and a long distance fibre network in Norway (currently under binding LOI).

Cordiant's second digital infrastructure equity vehicle is an opportunistic strategy, also focused on Europe and North America (seeing more opportunity in the latter) that will be structured as a Luxembourg-based GP/LP fund.

Cordiant is a sector-focused infrastructure investor with specialist teams in digital infrastructure, renewable energy infrastructure, agriculture, transport infrastructure and credit. It invests globally through equity-, debt and specific impact- funds.

In addition to Cordiant Digital II, the firm runs opportunistic credit strategies (such as Cordiant VII) and is marketing funds in global agriculture finance, European renewable energy equity, and an energy/transport/digital equity fund focused on West Africa.

The firm manages funds with committed capital of ~USD 3 billion through its offices in Montreal (HQ), London, Luxembourg, and Sao Paulo.

Notes to Editors:
